

Showing of films and television programmes including the news and news commentary, documentaries etc, under the “G” and “PG” classification.

Ashdale Secondary College may show film and television programs rated “G” and “PG” to students, as part of their educational program. The school is not permitted to show videos rated “MA” or higher. However, there may be occasions where an “M” rated video is considered appropriate for educational purposes. You will always be asked for permission before your child is shown such a video.
