

P&C Annual General Meeting

The next Parents & Citizens meeting will be the Annual General Meeting.

Date: Monday, 12 February 2024
Time: 6.00pm for at 6.15pm start
Venue: College Boardroom

The College P&C Annual General Meeting is open to all parents, guardians and community members.

At this meeting, the Office Bearer positions will become vacant and an election will be held to determine the new Office Bearers for 2024.

You can also nominate to be a general committee member or join a sub committee of the Association. Yearly membership to the P&C is $1.00, payable at the meeting.

Come along and help the College P&C become a strong and supportive group that promotes the interests of the College through:

- cooperation between parents, teachers, students and members of the general community;
- assisting in the provision of resources, facilities and amenities for the College;
- the fostering of community interest in educational matters.

Enquiries regarding the roles and responsibilities of a P&C member can be directed to the front office. We will then provide you with the contact information for the acting P&C President, Jonelle Carstens.

If you are interested in nominating to be an Office Bearer for 2024, please fill in the attached form and bring it to the P&C Annual General Meeting.
